The Daylight Store

TOO GOOD TO KEEP.

Saturday evening we received by express from the West what we consider a rare value in the way of Silk Petticoats, as follows:

SILK PETTICOATS.

These are now in our north window and if any lady has a Silk Petticoat want now is her opportunity. These Silk Petticoats are 142 inches around bottom of flounce that is made over a spun glass dust ruffle that has a 2 1/2 inch ruffle.

These Silk Petticoats come in black, red and black changeables, plain grey, green and black changeable, red and green changeable, brown and black changeable, navy and black changeable and red and black changeable and are to sell at only $4.98.

These are the first Silk Petticoats that we ever saw made from best silk to sell as low as $4.98.

If our trade think as well of these Silk Petticoats as we do, they will be closed out before Saturday night.

Sale prices on Silk Petticoats at end of season have never come anywhere near these values. They are bargains.

LADIES' WRAPPERS.

Considering cost of materials the following Wrappers will seem good values. Price has not made them any narrower. They are up to what they have always been, as good as your money can buy. Ladies that have had this make claim that they are better than what they had been buying.

New lot of Percale Wrappers now at $1.25.

New lot of Fleece Wrappers, very best material, good and full, $1.49.

Wrappers made for the sick rooms, of heavy fleeced down in colors, now at $1.98.

Kimonos.

These came Saturday by express. If they were not good it would not have been so hard to get them. (They were promised over a month ago.)

Kimonos made of fine fancy fleeced materials in long lengths now $1.49.

Kimonos in all prices, but the one that you ought to see is the one with silk collar and cuffs at $2.75.

You can save material and have a much smarter garment if cut by our New Idea 10c Pattern.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

NORTHFIELD.

Roswell Dewey, 74 years and nine months old, died Saturday night after a long illness with Bright's disease.

He is survived by his sister, Mrs. More, with whom he had lived for many years.

Funeral services were conducted at the home this afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. Walter Dole officiated and the interment was made in the Center cemetery.

Mr. Dewey was always much interested in the industrial growth of the town, and always held a firm faith in the ultimate development on a large scale of deposits of slate found here.

For many years he was employed as an express messenger, and so faithfully did he perform his work that following his retirement a few years since, the company annually remembered
